

CITIZENS EDUCATION SOCIETY'S
SHRIBHAIYYAJIPANDHARIPANDE
NATIONAL INSTITUTE OF SOCIAL WORK
HANUMAN NAGAR, NAGPUR-440009
(NAAC RE-ACCREDITED B)

ACTIVITY REPORT
2015-2016

AFFILIATED TO RASHTRASANT TUKODOJI MAHARAJ NAGPUR UNIVERSITY
RECONGNIZED BY GOVERNMENT OF MAHARASHTRA

NAAC RE-ACCREDITED INSTITUTION

Phone No. (0712) 2745074

Website: www.bpnationalinstitute.org

E-mail: bpnisw74@rediffmail.com

Index

S.No	Name of activity	Page no
1	Problem of HIV/AIDs: An Intervention	3
2	Counseling	4
3	Approaches of Rashtrasant Tukdoji Maharaj in Rural Development	5
4	Problems of Farmers: Causes & Remedies	6
5	Problems of Adiwasi People and Role of the Government and Voluntary Organizations	7
6	Rashtrasant Tukdoji Maharaj: His Positive Approach towards Social Changes in Society	8
7	“Gender Equality for Women’s Empowerment – A Vision 2030” organize by Health& Family Welfare Training Center, Nagpur, Government of Maharashtra & BPNISW Nagpur.	9

Problem of HIV/AIDS: An Intervention

Date: 28/09/2015

Total Participants -40

HIV AIDS infection is increased day to day. In the previous academic session a workshop was organized on the same topic. In this event the chair person was Dr. Lad & chief guest was Mrs. Hemlata a co-ordinator Indian Red Cross Society, Nagpur. In this event poster exhibition was opened by the team of Red Cross Society & this event was very useful to the students & participants. At the starting of the programme, opening talk was delivered by the faculty of our college Dr. Vilas Ghode. For creating awareness & prevention of HIV/AIDS the street play was performed by the team members Ku. Sevaikar, Nageswar Chachekar, Rakhi Gajbhiye, Ravishankar Khadaskar, Arti Sukhdeve & Ashwini Meshram. In this session the renowned or well-known resource person Mrs. Lohve enlightened the participants regarding the impact & consequences of HIV/AIDS infection to the commercial sex workers & their children. Mrs. Lohve comprehensively expressed her views regarding Nobel programmes & activities regarding HIV/AIDS prevention.

In the question answer session Dr. Ajit Lad & Hemlata Lohve cleared the doubts & questions raised by the students regarding to this subjects. In this event all the faculty of our college & all students were present. The employees of Red Cross Society gave very important information regarding the problems while working with HIV infected person & they advised the students that they should accept the challenges in this field & try to create more and more awareness among the society & for the betterment of the future society.

In this session the chair person Dr. Ajit Lad gave very informative talk regarding the HIV infection and misconception in the society about HIV/AIDS infection. Dr. Lad further expressed his views on persons those who infected by HIV/AIDS. For this session programme comperer was our faculty Dr. Nanda Pangul and vote of thanks delivered by Arti Sukhdeve.

COUNSELING

Date: 29/09/2015

Total Participants: 43

Counseling plays a vital role in social work practice. In the problem solving therapy proper counseling is needed at every root step. While considering its importance, counseling has been introduced as a separate subject in social work curriculum. Counseling is the most important subject in social work practice to impart more & more comprehensive knowledge to the students regarding this topic this event was organized. In this session we had Adv. RekhaBarhate as a chief guest.

The programme was commenced by lightening traditional lamp by the respected dignitaries and followed by university song. Dr. Seema Lobo delivered the introductory speech. In her speech she expressed the importance of counseling for the students in their career. Ms. Sevaikar expressed her views on historical overview of counseling. Mr. Nageshwar Chachekar defined counseling in his speech. Mrs. Rakhi Gajbhiye described how to take care while counseling to the clients. Ravishankar Kurujekar expressed his views on how to do counseling with sick children. Ms. Aarti Sukhdeve talked about counseling of cancer patients. Ms. Ashwini Meshram put her views on counseling of HIV affected persons.

After this event practical and Demonstration session was organized in this event five groups of student were formed. Each & every group of students were given a separate subject of counseling for group discussion among the all group members of the all students. The topics given to them were openly discussed & the performance and participation of the students in the discussion was observed & monitored by the counseling experts & our faculties. For this group discussion the topics were given to the students were, counseling of children in observation home, children in remand homes, 'counseling of women in VanitaVikas Home', 'counseling of children in Beggars home' and counseling of stake holders in family counseling holders etc.

The chairperson of the programme Adv. RekhaBarhate expressed her view on the importance of a role of counselor in family dispute matters as well as gave information about government counseling centers & services. For this event compere was PritiDongre & vote of thanks was delivered by AartiSukhdeve. Programmewas concluded with national anthem.

Approaches of Rashtrasant Tukdoji Maharaj in Rural Development

Date: 30/09/2015

Total Participants: 43

In this programme 43 students were participated & benefitted. In this programme introductory note was given by Dr. Nanda Pangul. She expressed in her speech that Rashtrasant's philosophy has great contribution in rural development of India. Rashtrasant Tukdoji Maharaj has written 'Gramgeeta' & he dedicated 'Gramgeeta' to the farmers. All the chapters in 'Gramgeeta' contributed to the rural life & permanent solutions of problems of the rural people. 'Gramgeeta' is not only useful for the researcher of rural community but also for the whole social work practitioners. Because Rashtrasant Tukdoji Maharaj has focused in his Gramgeeta on problems in the villages, an ideal village collects views among people & propagates them, marriage, custom & traditions and superstition etc. The chairperson of this programme was Gramgeetacharya Mr. Dashrathji Kodhe & chief guest was Bhauraoji Taywade propagator Gurudev Seva Mandal, Mojhri.

This great event starts with lighting the traditional lamp & with offering garland to the image of Rashtrasant Tukdoji Maharaj & traditional University song. In this programme Diksha Wankhede has described the role of Gramgeeta propagator & role of leader. Geeta Gujarkar described the role of parents & teachers in rural development with special reference to chapter on life education in Gramgeeta. Ashwina Zamre elaborated on chapter of the 'Gramgeeta' 'Gramshudhhi', further she told that by applying Rashtrasant's 'Gramshudhhi' rural sanitation should be maintained & sustain forever. Deepak Dahare expressed his great views on how to 'reconstruct village industry', with special reference to the chapter 'Gram Nirmal Kala' in Gramgeeta. Giridhar Luchekar explained the dignity of labour. Reena Helwatkar asserted her views on animal husbandry with reference to the 'Gowansh Sudhar', in 'Gramgeeta'. Reena Helwatkar explained that we can do better woman empowerment with reviewing with chapter 'mahila unnati' in the 'Gramgeeta' as well as explained come up of Villages family. Sham Bhangе gave his views on ideal village with reference to 'Bhuvaikunth'.

Chief Guest of the programme Mr. Bhauraoji Taywade expressed his opinion that now Rashtrasant Tukdoji Maharaj has done villages awareness through 'Bhajan'. Chairperson of programme Mr. Dashrath Kothe expressed his views on Rashtrasant's philosophy is relevant in contemporary era.

Compering of the programme was done by Snehal Shashtrakar & vote of thanks was done by Deepak Danare. Programme was concluded with 'Rashtravandana' 'Tan-Man-Dhanse'.

Problems of Farmers: Causes & Remedies

Date: 05/10/2015

Total Participants: 39

Agriculture plays a vital Role in India's Economy. Over 58% of the rural household depends on Agriculture as their Principle means of livelihood. This Agriculture is called as the back-bone of Indian Economy. But today, Agriculture is going through the miserable plight. Farmers are Committing Suiciderapidly. Vidarbha Region is Famous for Farmer's suicide. Being a Social Worker, we need to understand the plight of farmers. In respect of this, a group discussion was organized on "Problems of Farmers: Causes & Remedies" to find out solutions on the issues in the life of farmers. The programme was chaired by Shri. Sheshraoji Ghode. The Programme was commenced with lighting the Lamp and offering the flowers to the image of benevolent Rashtrasant Tukdoji Maharaj. An introductory remark was proposed by Prof. Nanda Pangul. Priti Dongre talked about ancient agriculture and farmer's condition and various researches being done regarding agricultural problems of farmers.

Pallavi Gaikwad talked about farmer's Suicide. Causes behind farmer's suicide were given by a student Shenal Shastrakar. Swati Choudhari tried to focus on farmer's plight and present condition of farmers. Monali Bagde had given the information about Government Schemes in Agriculture. Priyanka Madavi spoke on Various Agricultural Organizations and their role in Agriculture. Shri. Baban Manpure talked about remedies regarding farmers Problems and explained the role of the Voluntary Organizations such as join Foundation, Jalgaon, Grampayogi Vidnyan (Science) Kendra, Wardha. Last participants Venkat Munnepawar explained the role of a Social Worker. The Programme was chaired by Shri Sheshraoji Ghode a Farmer himself from a small village Barbadi discussed problems of farmers and its Causes. The Programme was anchored by Diksha Wankhede and vote of thanks was proposed by Priti Dongre. The Programme was concluded with the National Anthem.

Problems of Adiwasi People and Role of the Government and Voluntary Organizations

Date: 06/10/2015

Total Present Student: 41

There are various types of Adiwasi Communities live in India. Adiwai basically from in India come into an existence after globalization and Urbanization. Interaction of Adiwasi people with other people increased day to day in modern age. Thereafter they had to face more difficulty to sustain.

Being a Students of Social Work, we need to understand the problems of Adiwasi people in order to mediate on these issues a group discussion was organized on “Problems of Adiwasi (Tribal) People & Role of the Government and Voluntary Organizations”. The programme was Chaired by previous student of this college who worked in the department of Adiwasi Deveoplment under the Government of India was felicitated. The programme was commenced with lighting the Lamp offering the garland to the image of Rashtrasant Tukdoji Maharaj and Singing the Vidyapeetha Song.

An Introductory remark was proposed by prof. Dr. Nanda Pangul. Monika Nibrad discussed the point that who were the Adiwasis and what was their history of their lives etc. Sadhana Shirsam pointed out various problems of Adiwasi. Mahesh Atram explained the role of the Government in the life of Adiwasi people. Kalyani Bagde discussed the issues: Adiwasi and Naxalism and elaborated the impact of Naxlism on the life of Adiwasi people. Krutika Ghodmare explained the contribution of Voluntary Organization and gave the information about Lok Biradari Prakalp. Laxman Jughare gave the information about the empowerment of Adiwasi Villages through today's Development. Vijay Salam explained the role of Social Worker in the Development of Adiwasi people. Chairperson Shri. Vinod Duradmane explained educational Condition of Adiwasi Srudents. The programme was anchored by Mayuri Maraskolhe.

Vote of thanks was proposed by Vijay Salam. The programme was concluded with National Anthem.

Rashtrasant Tukdoji Maharaj: His Positive Approach towards Social Changes in Society

Date: 15-02-2016

Total Participants-

On the Occasion of Death Anniversary of Late Ishwarbabuji Deshmukh one Day Workshop was organized on “Rashtrasant Tukdoji Maharaj: His Positive Approach towards Social Changes in Society”.

An inauguration was done by the hands of Prof. Dr. Pramod Munghate R.T.M. Nagpur University. Hon’ble Principal Dr. Tulankar Sir explained the Concept of this Workshop. The Programme was anchored by Dr. Nanda Pangul.

Dr. Ramesh Durugkar the President of B.P. National Institute of Social Work, Shyam Deulakr, Shri. Babanrawji Wankhede as a Chief Guest, Shri Gulabraoji Khawse and Dr. Nanda Pangul were present in this Workshop. The Programme was anchored by Dr. Vilas Ghode and Vote of thanks was proposed by Dr. Nanda Pangul.

"GENDER EQUALITY FOR WOMEN'S EMPOWERMENT – A VISION 2030"

ORGANIZE BY

HEALTH & FAMILY WELFARE TRAINING CENTER, NAGPUR, GOVERNMENT OF MAHARASHTRA & BPNISW NAGPUR.

Date: 08/03/2016

Total Participants: 103

Objectives

- To let them Understand the Importance of “International Women’s Day” .
- To Aware them for Gender Equality
- To give them Knowledge of Law related to women.

The Programme was chaired by our Principal Dr. Laxmikant Tulankar. Inaugurator: Mrs. Jyoti Kannake – District Extension officer, Health and Family Welfare Training Center, Nagpur.

Chief Guest: Prabir Kumar Das – A retired Joint Director of public Institution. A Vidyapitha Geet was sung by Dr. Nanda Pangul, Shubhangi Tule and Geeta Gujarkar. An Introductory remark was proposed by Dr. Nanda Pangul.

United Nations had declared 8th March will be celebrated as “ International Women's Day” in 1975 and since then women's empowerment came into force. Gender Equality could not be established until male dominated mentality would not be changed. In terms of this, United Nations has declared a slogan “Gender Equality will be established till 2030 in the world” on 8th March 2016. In order to propagate awareness about women's empowerment in society a group discussion was organized on the subject ‘Male – Female Equality. Women's empowerment – A – Vision 2030.’ Dr. Prabir Kumar Das – Chief Guest explained the reasons responsible for gender inequality. Mrs. Jyoti Kannake talked on the importance of female education for the entire development of the country. Dr. Laxmikant Tulankar talked on sexual harassment that happened among women. The programme was anchored by Prof. Dr. Vilas Ghode and a vote of thanks was proposed by Dr. Rekha Jagnade.